

Fun facts

Some interesting facts about the River Clyde.

1. The River Clyde is the ninth longest in the UK and the second in Scotland (River Tay being the longest).
2. Between 1712 and the present day 25,000 ships have been built on the River Clyde.
3. The River Clyde is crossed by 70 bridges.
4. The mouth of the River Clyde is called the Firth of Clyde, at its deepest it is 164m deep.
5. Many years ago, trade expanded, which meant bigger ships needed to travel up the Clyde, by 1880 large cargo ships could travel into the city.

What different ways do you interact with the River Clyde?

What is your favourite thing about the River?

Have you ever seen flooding in Glasgow?

List 3 ways flooding near your home could affect your life?

.....

.....